Government To Repair Roads

Work To Be Under Supervision of The Local Automobile Association

We are informed that, as a result of action taken by the Crowfoot Automobile Association in sending a delegate to Edmonton to interview the Minister of Public Works on the disgraceful state of the roads through this district, the department has consented to start a small local gang on the roads immediately. This work will be under the supervision of the Automobile Association and will continue all summer.

The Association recently decided to affiliate with the Provincial Motor League and an active campaign is to be carried out this year that will be of interest to all motorists. It therefore behoves every person owning an automobile to join the Association and help boost the good work along.

A meeting of the Association will be held shortly at Coleman.

Daring Burglary in Coleman

Proprietor of Coleman Hotel Is Victim of Amateur Bill Sykes

The genial proprietor of the Coleman hotel awoke on Saturday morning last, in anything but a genial frame of mind, to the discovery that an unbidden guest, in the form of an unknown financial genius, with an absolute disregard of the criminal code, had forced an entrance through the dining room window during the wee hours and muleted the cash register to the tune of some twenty odd "bucks."

That the perpetrator of the outrage possessed the colossal nerve of an auto salesman is evinced by the fact that after forcing an entrance he easily turned and righted himself, and—recovered his register to the point of venture that caused his operation from the observation of any belated traveler who might chance to pass. The draw of the register containing the current, proving to be a conscientious objector, our embryo Jimmie Valentine proved himself equal to the emergency by smashing in the marble top, and showing a decided lack of consideration for the appearance of the apparition, or for the sensitive perception of his host, who was enteraining him unware.

Casual visitors, desiring to make a touch, are requested to interview the proprietor personally, as it is the intention of the management in future to drain the register before retiring.

Shanrock Jones, the noted criminalologist, has pronounced the affair an "inside job," and promises an arrest within the next few years.

Fred Malink, a spike-steamer driver, had his feet slightly crushed in the No. 2 mine of the McGillivray Creek Coal & Coke Co., Ltd., on Friday last.

Action has been commenced in the district against Alex. M. Morin, agent for the Louisville cars, against Joseph Hobart, for breach of contract, J. E. Gillis, oil merchant, for the steelfish, and O. E. Culbert, of Coleman, representing the Montreal.

The reappearance of The Bulletin last week caused a great many people a degree of relief. Now things have already begun to boom, and pretty soon Coleman will have returned to her place among the live burgs, whose position on the map is marked by the quality of its news bulletins.

The prompt and efficient use of the stomach pump prevented serious, if not fatal, consequences in the case of a young popular young man of Coleman, who had been visited at Blairmore during the fore part of the month. His diet, it is alleged to have contained a percentage of wood alcohol and gasoline enough to disgrace Buck's salted well.

Corn in Plenty

Ship Over All the Wheat There Is and Rely Upon Corn

Canadians probably do not realize the extent to which corn has been raised in the United States. It is not a case over there of an occasional试验性 experiment; it is a definite being made to induce the nearest possible approach to total substitution. The American government, through its federal food board, the American public was urged to depend wholly upon corn for its breads and large quantities. "It is believed that during the last sixteen months the increased production for corn has increased 500 per cent," the board declared. In the American press, much was given up when it was known that there would be an abundance of cornmeal, and when corn flour is available, to carry us through next winter. The market was created for corn, and with the demand for corn came the need for constipation by the people and the armies; therefore, the proposal of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police to ship over all the wheat there is, and rely upon corn. While there is no need to fear that we will be unable to farm in the land.

No man or woman should hesitate about because of corn when so certain a relief is at hand as Holloway's Corn Cakes.

American Meat Eater

Gradually the Idea of the Light Breakfast Being Incorporated into the Popular Mind

The American is imperious in the matter of breakfast, and the table of the country hotel where the American plan still obtained, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police invented a place among the many dishes that confronted the guest. The hotel was established, and when the idea was introduced, the American plan was modified in response to such far from popular taste. And so, not so long ago that a similar break fast was offered in the cities conducted on the American plan, but gradually the idea of the light breakfast has come to the popular mind and fruit and eggs, perhaps with bacon, have supplanted the old board groaning with calories.

Unless a man is engaged in heavy manual labor, he can eat more than once a day, and never should he eat more than twice a day. The desire for a piece of meat of the size of the palm of one's hand is sufficient for those who are not engaged in heavy labor. Any excess makes demands on your organs leading to prostration. Holloway's Corn Cakes has taught us to avoid over-indulgence in meat on the other days. He ate his fill of meat, but did not eat during these war times and carried it into the inevitable days of peace to be among those "bored" by the war.—Cincinnati Times-Star.

War and Food
No. 14—BUTTER

Canada's butter exports have been increasing steadily for the number of years and while in 1906 total exports amounted to 33,888,074 pounds, in 1914 they had dropped to 6,921,100 pounds.

On the other hand, Britain's imports of butter have risen from 452,795,564 pounds and her shortage due to the war is 209,487,842 pounds.

As much butter as possible should be made on the farms of Canada. Every farmer who can afford to do so can make will find a ready market and if the output were increased a little more, there would be no difficulty.

Butter-making should be one of the most reliable sources of income for the households in which the farmer's wife is particularly interested. A considerable portion of the butter produced is consumed right on the farms. The result is that in many cases there is a lack of market for butter, but the result that the butter does not go to the tables of creamery butter and cannot be sold at a good price.

The creamery butter is usually a daily war expenditure of nearly $100,000.

This is the price which we are paying to our country and our families from the war.

The price is heavy, but, as the Royal Canadian Mounted Police say: "If they got here you would have to pay for your money as well as for your butter."

Dives has had to sell butter at a loss, good, therefore, guessing at the ultimate cost of butter, he says: "We have to spend on bread. Freedoms, social progress, democracy, and all the rest of it, we smash the power of Prussian militarism."—London Daily Express.

Spend or Die!

The Price Which We Are Paying to Save Our Country

In the house of commons Mr. Bonar Law said: "That, to quote Mr. Gladstone, is a bit of money." It is no more than that, but it is used to counting the change of what we cannot afford to pay.

This gives us a daily war expenditure of nearly $100,000.

This is the price which we are paying to our country and our families from the war.

The price is heavy, but, as the Royal Canadian Mounted Police say:

"If they got here you would have to pay for your money as well as for your butter."

TEETHING TROUBLES

Baby's teething is a time of worry and anxiety to most mothers, but their little stomach becomes enlarged and constipation and colic set in. To ease baby on the stomach and bowel must be kept weak and regular.

Baby's Own Tablets—the ideal laxative for little ones.—Concierge Dr. Williams' Medical Co., Brockville, Ont.

Pool of Bethesda

An English reservist, who was living near Sudbury, Ont., before the war, wrote to the Concierge Dr. Williams' Medical Co., Brockville, Ont., asking for advice on whether the butter-making equipment in his home is up-to-date or not, and whether he could not be allowed to flag. The scarcity of fat is among the most serious difficulties.

Butter is the only article that can be marketed, and the market will widen for the milk cows of Europe are beginning to drop off.

With the great demand for butter that now prevails it would be a problem for a farmer and his wife to get the most up-to-date and scientific equipment.

Future Taggers Must First Get Federal Permit

Permits to hold tag days for war charities must first be obtained from the Ottawa authorities, according to the provisions of the federal registration act. This is likely to have considerable influence with the city council who will shortly consider a by-law dealing with the control of tag days, bazaars, and other collections of a similar nature. The federal registration act is particularly applicable to the different war charity societies, and provides that permission must first be sought from Ottawa for taking tag days.

When the council have to advise in conflicting with the dominion regulation, as any by-law would be superseded by a federal act dealing with the same point. It is understood, that the provincial act does not interfere with which is more stringent, and Salvation Army tag days and collections.

The safety and health committee recommended to council that a by-law be passed to regulate the holding of tag days and other charitable collections. It is proposed that when it is brought up for discussion, the provisions of the dominion act will be closely observed.

Humorous Yankee

The American in English affirms that he is perfectly satisfied with his English kitchen. A Yankee soldier was shown over an old church wherein hundreds of people slept between the walls, said the guide, indicating the inscription over-filled floor with a sweep of his hand.

"How?" said the Sammy. "Some way over in our country. Why don't you get a more interesting preacher?"

Local and General

Eighteen hundred carriers pigs flew from Starling, Ill., to Chicago, a distance of one hundred miles, in a little over two hours in the first of a series of tests for the government.

Simon John Clarke, superintendent of the national park at Banff, one of the original settlers of what is now Calgary, died Saturday afternoon last at Rochester, Minn., where he was operated on a week before for internal disorders.

Bulletin No. 2, recently issued by the superintendent of the Soldiers of the Soil, Alberta Division, announces that twenty-five thousand or more older boys, from fifteen to nineteen years, are now enlisted and organized, under the direction of the Canada Food Board, to go out to the farms to do their part in the campaign of greater production, and emphasizes that either farmers or men who have enrolled and who make arrangements of their own, should notify the provincial superintendent, A. L. Marks, at 427 Tegler Building, Edmonton, at once. A great deal of confusion has been caused by failure to do so in the past, and it is desired to obviate this as far as possible. In several instances boys have been sent to farmers, only to find on arrival that help had already been obtained, and numerous boys, when allotted, have written in to say that they had already obtained employment.

The food controller declares that brasies are off, and there is evidence that this opinion is shared by other government departments—Lady's Pictorial.

He came into a New York recruiting booth. His name was Patrick. And he had had at least several fingers.

"I want to register."

"How old are you?"

"Thirty-four."

"You're too big."

"What was that?"

"You're too old—you can't fight."

"The hell I can't fight."

And like a flash he peeled off his coat, licked every register, and wiped the place out. And then enough cops came in.—An Eye-witness.

Advertising in The Enterprise brings prompt results. A few weeks ago we advertised for a lost pair of ladies' spectacles. The spectacles were no doubt picked up by a Chinaman in town, who is now a prominent citizen. The Enterprise, and because of the fact that he cannot read English or has heard nothing of the owner, has disposed of the ornament to a junk dealer and invested the returns in a visto in raising money to purchase wool for knitting soldiers' socks, and the result was quite gratifying. A pleasant feature of the campaign is the singing of the highland sing by Mr. McMillan of Cowley, Alberta, and his daughter, Mrs. Var Allan of Edmonton.—Edmonton Journal.

Dick and Lynch Stanton, of Fischer Creek, were in town on Tuesday of this week.

Capt. Hunt has been transferred from Frank to Edmonton, and Lieut. Péré is now O.C. at the Frank Military Hospital.

LOST—On Lee Plate, near Buffmin, a tan leather handbag, containing blueprints and other documents. Finder will please leave the same at The Enterprise.

Permission has been granted the local school trustees to collect a head tax for educational purposes from all wage earners over sixteen years of age, who are not already direct taxpayers in the district. By this means considerable revenue will be forthcoming that will greatly reduce the mill rate on property for the year.

Under the auspices of the Winonaosis society a dance was held in Sullivan's dancing-academy this evening and many people attended. The dance was given with a view in raising money to purchase wool for knitting soldiers' socks, and the result was quite gratifying. A pleasant feature of the campaign is the singing of the highland sing by Mr. McMillan of Cowley, Alberta, and his daughter, Mrs. Var Allan of Edmonton.—Edmonton Journal.

Distant Relation

During the course of a trial in Chicago a witness by the name of Francis Dooley was asked concerning the defendant:

"Are you related to Thomas Dooley?"

"Very distantly," said Francis. "I was his mother's first child—Thomas was the tenth!"

Making the Forest Fireproof

Several forest fires have already occurred in various parts of Canada this year. In practically every case the cause has been due to human carelessness, thoughtless cigarette, a neglected campfire, or similar act that at the moment appeared trifling. Settlers, anxious to burn their "old man" timber, sometimes without keeping Government regulations, are a prolific cause of forest fire every year.

The rangers of this province are asking the co-operation of every man, woman and child that can be induced to keep the campfires down to a minimum, as a matter of decent patriotism. Special efforts are being made to provide fire fighting equipment but the main task is to prevent fires from starting. The best way to do this is to let a smoker extinguish his cigarette and match before tossing away, every settler having a clearing fire. When a bush fire is seen, the first word should be sent to the nearest fire ranger, railroad agent or municipal officer.

Muffle The Sneeze!

The sneeze converts a person into a human atomizer, expelling millions of germs. If afflicted with cold, grip or pneumonia, he vigorously spreads his disease with every sneeze.

His cold also breeds a moulder, for the lack of which we have so much consumption.

If it's against the law to open the cutout of your nose, which can cure a cold, then it ought to be helpful to open the cutout on your head and spread disease.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Murphy, of the C.P.R. local yard staff, is being transferred to Shaunavon, Saskatchewan.

An incident which occurred on Wednesday night just west of Blairmore reminds us of the old game "The Stage-Coach Turned Over." The Crows' Nest Pass stage took a much needed rest by the roadside.

High water in the Old Man River at Macleod is reported to have taken out two bents of the C.P.R. bridge there. The running of light traffic over the bridge, however, is still permissible. It is understood that the company will build a new steel bridge at that point this year to take care of the heavy traffic.

Housekeepers who are anxious about their preserves for next winter may take comfort. The Food Board announces that there will be sufficient sugar in the country for the preserving and canning season; and that the maximum fruit and vegetable crops that can be produced in this country will be taken care of, so far as the sugar supply is concerned. To make sure of this, however, strict conservation will be necessary in the meantime.

Rev. J. E. Hughson, former pastor of McDougall church, Edmonton, sends a letter from England which is of peculiar interest at the present juncture. The spirit of the people, he declares, is beyond all praise. They will fight a hundred years before they give in to Germany. "The women are wonderful," Mr. Hughson goes on. "I had lunch with a lady of title and her talented niece, and from 6 o'clock that morning this cultured girl had been attending to the farm horses and the stock, as her daily task, and her aunt was managing the farm of four hundred acres while her husband was serving the state. Only three men were left on the farm, one of them had just been called up, and another was coming to military age. Women were taking the places of men, and tackling the hardest and most unpleasant tasks. That evening the lady of title served behind the counter at the Y.M.C.A. canteen. This is the new spirit of England. It cannot be conquered by Germany, or by 'secretary guns.' Testimony from such a source is most welcome. Sometimes we see things in print which makes us ask: 'Standards English where she did?' But it is not long before we have our faith restored.

Rumor has it that a certain party in this section of the Crown's Nest Pass is givering over the loss of the entire contents of his house cache. The lucky thief glories in the knowledge that the owner dare not get after the stuff, but has to be prepared to account for the goods being in his possession if caught by the authorities.

A boozebumper passing through the town of Coleman the other day shrewdly overboard his cargo, on seeing a police officer in sight. The boozebumper made sufficient noise to attract the attention of the police, but a number of people in that locality, so that the car and its occupants were grabbed, together with the sack of "undesirables," and are held by the police.

Seth Woodbury was a tight-fisted old farmer. When his brother William died it was said that Seth had even grudged the money for proper medical care. Seth hitched up and drove to town to have a notice of his brother's death inserted in the local paper.

"There isn't no charges, be there?" he asked anxiously.

"Oh, yes, indeed," answered the editor; "our rate is a dollar an inch."

From Bethlehem, a youthful British Soldier writes to a friend: "I am on guard at present, and it is a great honour, I can tell you that I am guarding the birth place and manger of our Lord.
